PROPER PROCEDURES, BETTER ACCOUNTING.

When you look for efficiencies, do you look in your accounting department? Because it is revenue neutral, this department may be the last place you look! The accounting department is fundamental to your survival. Yet a surprising number of officer's don't fully understand what happens there every day. How many hands touch a sale before it becomes an invoice? How is an invoice in arrears handled? Do you have revenue sitting in a stack of invoices? How are vendors paid? Who controls the flow of commissions? Let TAD help you streamline your company's accounting policies and procedures and keep you in the know. Keep revenue flowing into your bank account in a timely fashion and your bills paid on time.
