Announcing the formation of TAD, an Outsourced Accounting Firm

TAD, an outsourced accounting firm with a national reach is the result of a merger between TADAccounting, an industry leader in Seattle, WA and Outsourced Financial, a successful strategic tax management firm located in South Carolina.

“It was a smart business decision.” said Deanna Gildea, CEO of TADAccounting. “The merger brings together two established companies, one on each Coast, and allows us to expand and extend our successful outsourced accounting model nationwide. Scott Powell and I have worked together for six years and share the same vision and goals.”

“I could not be more pleased with the merger of these two firms.” said Scott Powell, CEO of Outsourced Financial. “Our combined strengths and talents will allow us to develop an enhanced product and improve service to our clients.”

Deanna will become the Chief Quality Office (CQO) within the newly formed company. She will create and manage a Customer Care Team with responsibility for assuring a high quality product and client satisfaction. Scott Powell will become the Chief Financial Officer (CFO).

Company Bio
